By choosing pre-owned furniture, you contribute to the circular economy, by extending the life of a beautifully designed piece and reducing environmental impact. Make sustainable decisions without sacrificing style, and shop with peace of mind knowing that your purchase made a huge impact on the community.

THE DESIGNER

David's greatest strength is listening and observing. By gathering valuable insights, he's able to effectively translate a client's identity and values into a tangible space.

"An interior space is a powerful mechanism to create conversation and connect people through shared experiences. I am purposefully driven to design experiential and meaningful spaces that really resonate with people."

David's attention to detail and love for 3D visualisation tools sees him immersing his client's vision into a 3D model throughout the creative journey. He understands the power of technology to rapidly demonstrate ideas, which informs critical decision-making for the client and project team.

With over 14 years' experience across Sydney, Melbourne, and New Zealand, David specialises in complex workplace, customer experience, and integrated architecture projects. He has been a core team member for the Google REVY and INDE award-winning Google Aotearoa projects, in a design lead role focusing on the events production and hospitality offerings of the workplace.
